

Let Wisconsin keep the stricter No Call List we have. I have my answering machine so my children can communicate with me. I don't like it to be filled with telemarketer calls. Also my mother is hard of hearing and when telemarketers call they can be nasty to her. And at age 84 she doesn't need to rush to the phone any more times than necessary.